
THE BOOK OF REVELATION

Revelation 15:1 (ESV)

1 Then I saw another sign in heaven, great and amazing, seven angels with seven plagues, which are the last, for with them the wrath of God is finished.

Like the Flood back in Genesis, these final seven plagues will uncreate the current cosmic order so a new world might be born.

“For His anger is but for a moment, and His favor is for a lifetime. Weeping may tarry for the night, but joy comes with the morning.” (Psalm 30:5)

“The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. He will not always chide, nor will he keep His anger forever… But the steadfast love of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting on those who fear Him.” (Psalm 103:8-9, 17)

That's my secret, Cap.

I'm always angry.

God is always and forever holy, but one day, God's righteous anger will be spent and the fire of indignation will never again enter His heart.

Revelation 15:2-3 (ESV)

2 And I saw what appeared to be a sea of glass mingled with fire—and also those who had conquered the beast and its image and the number of its name, standing beside the sea of glass with harps of God in their hands. 3 And they sing the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying…

Revelation 15:3-4 (ESV)

3 … “Great and amazing are your deeds, O Lord God the Almighty! Just and true are your ways, O King of the nations! 4 Who will not fear, O Lord, and glorify your name? For you alone are holy. All nations will come and worship you, for your righteous acts have been revealed.”

“I will sing to the LORD, for He has triumphed gloriously; the horse and his rider He has thrown into the sea. The LORD is my strength and my song, and He has become my salvation; this is my God, and I will praise Him, my father’s God, and I will exalt Him. The LORD is a man of war; the LORD is His name.” (Exodus 15:1-3)

The Song of Moses

(Exodus 15)

“Worthy are You… for You were slain, and by Your blood You ransomed people for God from every tribe and language and people and nation, and You have made them a kingdom and priests to our God, and they shall reign on the earth… Worthy is the Lamb who was slain, to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing… forever and ever! … Amen!” (Revelation 5:9-14)

“Great and amazing are Your deeds, O Lord God the Almighty! Just and true are Your ways, O King of the nations! Who will not fear, O Lord, and glorify Your name? For You alone are holy. All nations will come and worship You, for Your righteous acts have been revealed.” (Revelation 15:3-4)

Our God is a man of war. He will battle and defeat the forces of darkness, so let us never find ourselves enlisted or conscripted into that army.

Revelation 15:5-6 (ESV)

5 After this I looked, and the sanctuary of the tent of witness in heaven was opened, 6 and out of the sanctuary came the seven angels with the seven plagues, clothed in pure, bright linen, with golden sashes around their chests.

Revelation 15:7-8 (ESV)

7 And one of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God who lives forever and ever, 8 and the sanctuary was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from his power, and no one could enter the sanctuary until the seven plagues of the seven angels were finished.

The Heavenly Tabernacle

“Jesus answered them, ‘Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.’ … But he was speaking about the temple of His body.” (John 2:19, 21)

“Do you not know that you are God’s temple and that God’s Spirit dwells in you? If anyone destroys God’s temple, God will destroy him. For God’s temple is holy, and you are that temple.”
(1 Corinthians 3:16-17)

Revelation 16:1 (ESV)

1 Then I heard a loud voice from the temple telling the seven angels, “Go and pour out on the earth the seven bowls of the wrath of God.”

Revelation 16:5-7 (ESV)

5 And I heard the angel in charge of the waters say, “Just are you, O Holy One, who is and who was, for you brought these judgments. 6
For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and You have given them blood to drink. It is what they deserve!” 7 And I heard the altar saying, “Yes, Lord God the Almighty, true and just are your judgments!”

Revelation 16:10-11 (ESV)

10 …People gnawed their tongues in anguish 11 and cursed the God of heaven for their pain and sores. They did not repent of their deeds.

Revelation 16:17-18 (ESV)

17 The seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air, and a loud voice came out of the temple, from the throne, saying, “It is done!” 18 And there were flashes of lightning, rumblings, peals of thunder, and a great earthquake such as there had never been since man was on the earth, so great was that earthquake.

Revelation 16:19 (ESV)

19 The great city was split into three parts,
and the cities of the nations fell, and God remembered Babylon the great, to make her drain the cup of the wine of the fury of His wrath.

Revelation 16:8-9 (ESV)

20 And every island fled away, and no mountains were to be found. 21 And great hailstones, about one hundred pounds each, fell from heaven on people; and they cursed God for the plague of the hail, because the plague was so severe.

Even the most just of our wars are not holy. But when God Almighty and the Lamb, who made and know every human heart, go to war against the forces of darkness, it is indeed holy. It is, in fact, just, right, good, and true.

“Great and amazing are your deeds, O Lord God the Almighty! Just and true are your ways, O King of the nations! Who will not fear, O Lord, and glorify Your name? For You alone are holy.”

(Revelation 15:3-4)

God's wrath against evil, sin, and death is the flip side of His goodness and love for His creation. The Lord refuses to leave us in bondage. He refuses to let darkness, corruption, and destruction distort His world. He will purge. He will quarantine. He will punish and avenge. He will make all things new.
